Dearest mama,
How can we put into words who you were?
Anyone who has known you, remembers your warm smile.
And recalls your loving teasing.
Remembers how you could achieve the impossible without making a fuss and if you were cheered for that,
such performance only seemed natural to you.
Until your final days you carried us and made your suffering bearable for us.
Now it's our turn to carry you.
To pass on your love and to ensure that nothing gets lost.
You were love.
We will love you, always.

Thanks to all who cared about our mama and who will now carry her close to their heart
